Bush Celtic 3 Kilcock Celtic 4
16-10-2010

On Saturday morning last Kilcock travelled down to play Bush Celtic for their first ever meeting at this level.

Both teams kitted out for what everyone agreed would be a great and interesting match.

The visitors started well with mid-fielder Daniel McNally and Sean Logan sending-in long passes into the danger zone. Bush's defence worked well and managed to deal with the early pressure.

After fifteen minutes, Kilcock opened the scoring when Jack Foley got on the end of a long pass and his powerful shot found the roof of the net.

Bush responded with a quick attack and equalised within minutes.

The second half brought on the most exciting football from both teams in an all out effort to get on top.

The home side pushed ahead with ten minutes gone. Kilcock answered the challenge within minutes when Jack Foley pounced again after a long ball in deceived the home defence

With ten minutes left Bush went ahead again when another long ball into the box was dispatched to the back of the net. The visitors answered back when Foley lob shot dropped into the top of the net.

With only minutes remaining and the game heading for a draw Kilcock back Senan Duignan saw a chance and charged into the box and slide the ball past the advancing keeper to score the winning goal.

Kilcock Celtic 5 v Clane United 0
9-10-10

On Saturday Kilcock took on Clane at their home ground in Scoil Dara.

It was a bright but cold morning as both teams kitted out for the mid-morning kick off.

As the match got underway Celtic started well with Senan Duignan and Keith McDermott keeping Clane at bay with some great midfield play.

United fought hard and with some great football from captain Dylan Ryan came close to scoring but his effort went just wide.

It was home team that got off the mark first. A Desmond Lesson's long ball up to Jack Foley who dribbled it into the box and blasted the ball past the Clane keeper to the back of the net. Just before half time another ball up from Keith McDermott released Jack Mallan to take on united's defence again and his great effort found the net.

The second half brought some outstanding football from both teams. Clane tried hard to find an opening and Kilcock working to increase their lead.

Jack Foley scored twice in quick succession from chances created from Brian Crosse and Conor Larkin.

Clane tried hard but luck was against them. Dylan Ryan went very close on a number of occasions. Jack Foley finished off an impressive display with his forth goal just before the final whistle.
