

Cork

Honoured: Ursula Pineda centre, is presented with the Dementia Carer of the Year Award by Barbara O'Connell, Honorary chairwoman of the Alzheimer's Society of Ireland. Also included, from left are, Dr Eleanor Mullan, consultant psychiatrist, Betty Sands, co-ordinator/supervisor and Tom Comiskey honorary treasurer Alzheimer's Society of Ireland.

S.I. Cork Member Eva O'Connell has been announced as the winner of the Cork Environmental Forum Annual Roll of Honours. The award came as recognition of Eva's work on local environmental issues, including being Chairperson of Rochestown and District Tidy Towns Association, a post she held for 18 years. The CEF Environmental Award was established in 2001 to mark the contribution of individual citizens, organisations and businesses to the environment in County Cork

Drogheda

Jean (Tormey) Strong, S.I. (Drogheda), Carmel Schmidt, National President, Mary Cullen (Tormey) S.I. Naas Newbridge at S.I. Drogheda late late lunch for Alzheimers held in the Boyne Valley Hotel.

Richard & Carmel Schmidt, National President with Bernarde O'Connor Woburn at late late lunch for Alzheimers, Boyne Valley Hotel - Drogheda.

Dublin

Jacqui Nielsen, President S.I. Dublin, lighting the last of 4 candles (representing St Vicenza Club, the region, S.I. Europe and Soroptimist International) at the Vicenza Club Friendship weekend 15-17th April 2005

President Jacqui Nielsen, S.I. Dublin presented flowers to the artiste, International Soprano Patricia Brady who is a New York Soroptimist. Patricia Brady gave her performance without fee. She will be back in Dublin on 7th March 2006 in the National Concert Hall.