

The Creative Well

ARTS WORKSHOPS

Tuesday 25 September – Tuesday 11 December 2012
Athy, Co. Kildare

The Creative Well offers free, friendly, daytime workshops in your locality where you can try creative arts activities. We welcome all adults including complete beginners! This programme offers the opportunity to learn about the arts, develop skills and connect with others in your community.

How does it work?

This is a twelve week programme. Workshops will run once a week and are delivered by professional trained artists in a supportive and relaxed environment.

During workshops participants can learn and improve visual art skills while developing their own creativity. This programme will introduce drawing, painting, printmaking, clay work and three dimensional studies.

Following this each participant can then work with materials of their choice to develop their own creative project with the support of tutors.

When and where?

Tuesday 10.00 am–12.00 pm, 25 September–11 December 2012 in Athy, Co. Kildare.

What previous participants said:

"I have reconnected with my creativity and self expression through art and loved it. I have been energised and inspired and really enjoyed the process".

Interested?

Participation is free of charge but by application. If you are interested, you can either:

1. Download an application form from www.kildare.ie/artsservice
2. Contact Catherine O'Grady
Tel: 087 056 6784 (9am – 5pm) or email: catherine.ogrady@hse.ie

