KILDARE 2019

WELCOME

This year Culture Night Kildare celebrates its 10th anniversary!

It's a great achievement for Kildare County Council and above all for the groups, venues, artists and organisations that have contributed, through the last decade, to make Culture Night an annual opportunity to explore the rich cultural resources in our county.

Since the beginning, local communities have been the heart and soul of Kildare Culture Night and we would like to celebrate this through three very special, community projects to get you ready for a night of wonder, fun and discoveries.

Our Local Ambassador, Margaret Becker, has been immersed in the arts scene in Kildare for many years, as stained - glass artist and printmaker and founder of the Leinster Printmaking Studio in Clane in 1998. On Friday 20th September she invites you to celebrate culture; with over 70 FREE events to Wrap You Up In Culture!

SPECIAL COMMUNITY PROJECTS

In Ardclough Village a number of local groups will come together in the weeks prior to Culture Night to develop a showcase of the talents and skills the village has to offer. Facilitated and supported by Ardclough Community Council, Ardclough Drama Group, Ardclough Youth Theatre, Ardclough GAA Club and St. Annes Choir will create a window display and an after mass "pop up" performance that will introduce you to The Culture Night programme.

Culture Night Photo Booth. Realised by members of McAuley Place and artist Cathy O'Brien in the weeks prior to Culture Night, a special Photo Booth will travel from venue to venue on the night, to get you in the picture and make you part of this fantastic night.

With ceramic as the primary medium, artist Marta Golubowska and members of Irish Wheelchair Association Athy will promote inclusiveness and equality through art. The exhibition displayed in Athy Library for Culture Night will give you a glimpse of what you can expect on the night.

Dauntless and Daring

“Dauntless and Daring Women of The Gael,” tells the stories of seven incredibly brave and feisty Irish women. They had fiery tempers, determination, some loved, some lost, some lied, some fought, but above all they were survivors in a man’s world. All these women were different in background, personality, talents and fame and born in Ireland. They were all strong and brave who made their mark in Ireland and throughout all parts of the world, but sadly have mostly been forgotten in history. This performance is by Glynis Casson who narrates and sings and is accompanied by Harpist Claire Roche.

1st come, 1st served on the night, so get there early.

The Moat Club presents Nine by Jane Shepard

In Nine, two women are being held in a life-threatening situation. Locked in a room and chained apart, their only currency is words, and balance of power is everything. A single word takes on immense significance, even the difference between life and death. Nine was originally produced at the Circle Rep Lab in New York City in March, 1995. Libby Trappe plays Woman 1 and Amanda Ryan plays Woman 2 under the direction of Conor O'Connell.

Conor, who is a former All-Ireland Drama best actor, takes on the role of director for the first time. Patrons should be aware that the play contains strong language.

ISL Film Screening

A cultural film will be shown to reflect the unique linguistics syntax grammar of Irish Sign Language (ISL) through the medium of music and song. ISL became the 3rd official language of Ireland in December 2017 but there are still some misconceptions that ISL is just signing English words. We hope this short film will demonstrate that ISL is a language in its own right.
